W. Z. STULTZ ANNOUNCED AS ANONYMOUS DONOR OF $10,000 FOR COTTAGE

Revelation of His Identity Was Made at Semi-Annual Meeting of the Regents

BUILDINGS INSPECTED

Work Progressing Rapidly on Five Structures.— Reports Given to the Board

W. Z. Stultz, of Charlotte, was revealed to the Board of Regents of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home in semi-annual session here on May 13th as the anonymous donor of a $10,000.00 sum for the construction of one of four cottages that are now nearing completion at Barium Springs.

In December of 1939 it was announced that an elder in the Myers Park Presbyterian Church in Charlotte had obligated himself to give the necessary sum for a cottage, but a public revelation of the identity of the donor was not made until the spring session of the governing board.

Mr. Stultz was at Barium in the early days of May to complete the payment of his pledge and permission was given the authorities to make public his name. The occasion of the semi-annual assembly of the Board of Regents was selected as the time to make this public.

Mrs. Adelaide Cannon Blair, of Washington, D. C., is the donor of one of the cottages in memory of her father and mother, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cannon, of Concord; the ladies of the North Carolina Synodical gave a third cottage, and permission to reveal the donors of the fourth building has not yet been given.

At their meeting this month the Regents inspected this quadrangle of cottages and also a printing office and shoe shop building given by Franklin Avery Sherrill, of Statesville, in memory of his wife. Considerable progress has been made in the construction of these five buildings. The quadrangle will be ready for occupancy early in July and the printing office in June.

Sixteen of the 20 board members attended the recent sessions at which time reports on the recently ended fiscal year were received from Jos. B. Johnston, superintendent, and Ernest Milton, treasurer. The finance, house, case work, farm and educational committees all had reports.

Mr. Johnston's report showed the population of the Home to be 301 today, with 19 children having

Entertainment Given At Commencement

Senior Class Offers Play.— Grammar Grades Present Operetta and Play

Instead of the usual class-day program on graduation morning, April 21th, the seniors this year omitted the class history, prophecy, last will and testament, etc., and instead they chose to entertain their friends with a play. "Education Triumphant". The first act represented the present day, the second was based upon school experiences of 1870, and the closing act returned to the present era.

Emma Eudy played the part of "Spirit of Education" and the supporting cast included Russel McKenzie as "Grandfather McDonald", Arthur Roach as Ben Corvette, Lillie McDonald as Teacher, Standish McKenzie as John McDonald, Russell McKenzie as Tom McDonald, Mac Caldwell as Willie McDonald, Roland Hooten and Paul Dellinger as Father and Son. The School Directors were Arthur Roach, Roland Hooten, James Shoyer, and Standish McKenzie.

During the play, while old man McDonald slept, five little girls representing "Sleep and Her

MARRIAGES.

Lowrance-Templeton

From Statesville Record of May 14th.

In a quiet ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church in Columbia, South Carolina, last Monday afternoon, May 12, 1941, Miss Frances Johnson Templeton became the bride of William Wilson Lowrance.

The bride was dressed in a powder blue silk print dress with short jacket and matching felt hat. Her shoulder corsage was an orchid.

Mrs. Lowrance is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce S. Templeton, of Mooresville and graduated from the Mooresville city schools, completing her education at Mitchell College with a Commercial course. For several years the bride has been employed at the local county agent's office and has been very active as a member of local clubs. She is the coming president of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority and is vice president of the Spinsters Club. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Brevard Price, of this city.

Mr. Lowrance is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lowrance of Barium Springs and received his education at Davidson College, graduating with the class of '38. He is a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon and a reserve officer in the United States Army, and holds a position with the business department of the Duke Hospital in Durham.

The young couple have gone to Florida for a wedding trip and after the first of June will make their home in Durham, N. C.

Pittman—Hamilton.

Margaret Pittman, a 1933 graduate of Barium Springs, was married on April 26th to J. E. Hamilton, of Washington N. C. Mrs. Hamilton became a graduate of Pittman Hospital in Fayetteville after finishing here and had been nursing in Durham for the past two or three years. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton came by Barium Springs on their honeymoon. They will make their home in Washington, N. C.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Clendenin of Barium Springs announce the birth of a daughter in April. Mr. Clendenin is a graduate of Barium and works in the orchards here.

18 GRADUATED AT BARIUM ON APRIL 21 FOLLOWING THREE GOOD ADDRESSES

Hon. Clyde R. Hoey Made Commencement Speech On Educational Theme

SUNDAY SERMONS

Rev. S. H. Fulton and Rev. Earl Thompson Preached at Services on Sunday, April 20th

"Youth should be thoroughly indoctrinated with the principles of free and just government, and properly advised as to the dangers of subversive doctrines and anti-American ideals," declared Hon. Clyde R. Hoey, of Shelby, in delivering the annual commencement address to the 1941 graduates of the high school located at the Presbyterian Orphan's Home. The final exercises were held on Monday night, April 21st.

This statement by the former Governor of North Carolina followed an earlier assertion that "education is still the prime necessity for North Carolina youth" and the conclusion that "it is our responsibility to see to it that we have the broad basis for education laid upon an enduring foundation with proper emphasis upon the real values of life, and with a correct appreciation of the spirit of our democratic form of government."

In speaking of education as a vital necessity to North Carolina's youth, the speaker said that much had been accomplished, but contended that education was a continuous process and should receive the continuous interest and support of all people, with ever advancing progress along all lines.

"The need of today," went on Mr. Hoey, "is educated, trained, skilled workers. We do not wish to limit the scale of education or circumscribe the basic foundation of cultural training, but the imperative demand is for capable and trained men and women who know how to do work of high grade and who are themselves willing to work. Education is not

News From Some Of The Cottages

INFIRMARY

Since we wrote you last many nice things have happened.

We had eighteen boys and girls to graduate this year. We were very fortunate to have Hon. Clyde R. Hoey to make our commencement address. His talk was very interesting and we surely enjoyed it.

Our teachers have all left for the summer, except Mr, Calhoun. We are hoping to see them again in September.

Mrs. McNatt, our matron, took the Infirmary girls to the show to see "Wagons Roll at Night." We went on the little bus. All enjoyed it very much.

We want to thank Mr. Calhoun and Mr. Hethcox for taking us to the show this winter and spring.

Mrs. McNatt, Annie Sue Wilson and Elaine Faircloth had a nice visit from their people.

Our Daily Vacation Bible School started Monday, May 5th, for two weeks. We know the ones that are going will enjoy it.

We were glad to see Mr. Hethcox on the campus the other night.

We want to thank Mrs. Grier, Miss Burgess and Miss Clark for bringing us some lovely flowers and also Miss Reid, who sent us some.

Our epidemics of mumps and measles are nearly over.

Everyone is glad to see Mr. Lowrance back on the campus after his illness.

The Baby Cottage and Infirmary girls are having a picnic at Camp Fellowship, Saturday.

—Elaine Faircloth
—Martha Price

HOWARD COTTAGE

Since we wrote you last we have a little new girl. Her name is Betty Sue Murray. We are glad to have her with us and hope she will like her new home.

One of our girls, Eleanor Pope, went to Rumple Hall. We sure do miss her. All of our girls are thinking about vacation and camp time now that school is out.

We are glad to be going to Bible School again.

All of our girls are back with us again from those mumps.

One of our girls has a cold. She is Aline Parham but we hope she will hurry and get well. Also, our matron, Miss Burgess, has the ear ache.

Circle No. 2 in the Mooresville First Church gave us 15 pictures to put in our cottage. We all thank them for the pictures.

—Dorothy Maples
—Violet Knight

BABY COTTAGE
Second Floor

We have been having lots of fun playing at the play grounds on our new see-saws and swings.

We have taken off our shoes. Boy! The sand sure feels good to our feet, but we have been cutting them lots.

Peggy Ann Collins' mother and grandmother brought us some cookies, peanuts and some canned fruit which we enjoyed very much.

We wish to thank our good friends from Greensboro for the candy they brought us. (They brought each one of us a mound.)

We wish to thank Mae Hilliard's people of Cooleemee for the nice oranges they brought to us Easter Monday.

Mrs. Vernon Taylor (Lucy Bryant) visited our big sister, Lilly. We were so glad to have her. Come again, Lucy.

We are always glad to have visitors. We surely have enjoyed the candy you brought us and we thank you very much.

Loretta Young was the only one over at the Baby Cottage who got a certificate for not being absent or tardy during this year of school.

We had five girls on the Honor Roll for the last two months in school: Peggy Joyce Land, Betty Jean McBride, Caroline Wicker, Janie Smith and Lilly Bryant.

We have a little new girl since we wrote you last. She has long blonde hair, blue eyes and she is four years old. Rebecca Murray, we are glad to have you.

Out of seventeen little girls just one has the measles. We hope Loretta Young will soon be well and up again.

We will have eight girls going to the birthday table in May. "We wish it would hurry and come" say Peggy Ann Collins, Ray Powell, Katie Dunn, Lois Dellinger, Barbara Bradshaw, Peggy Joyce Land, Loretta Young and Janie Smith. Don't eat too much girls.

We wish to thank the First Church of Durham for the money that took us to town on the bus to the show and after the show we had some ice cream. It sure was good. We thank you again.

Peggy Ann Collins, Jane Feimster, Louise and Barbara Bradshaw, Lois Dellinger, Helen Barnes and Lilly Bryant have had visits from their people since we wrote you last.

BABY COTTAGE
First Floor

We sure are glad school is out so our, "big boys" can be here to play with us all day.

Three of our boys were in the commencement play: Jerry Ennis, Dwight Reid and Buddy Maples.

We boys, like everyone else, were sorry to see the seniors leave. We hope luck will follow them.

Several ladies from Concord came to visit us last week, and we want to thank them for the picture books they gave to our little boys.

On Sunday we had a visit from some folks from Shelby and we hope they will come again to see our lovely home.

Last Saturday we went to the Crescent Theatre to see a cowboy picture and we are still using the tickets we got Christmas.

We little boys are having such a good time playing, we can't think of anything else to say.

SYNOD'S COTTAGE

School is out and we are having a grand time playing baseball all

Most of our boys made their grades. Honorable Clyde R. Hoey delivered our commencement address. We enjoyed his address very much.

Our big girls, Edith Powell and Margaret Presnell, are getting our house all cleaned up for the summer. Edith has just lately come over to live with us. We are glad to have her.

We are going to start Daily Vacation Bible School in a week or two. We are always glad to start. After that we will soon be going to camp.

Every Sunday morning after breakfast, Mr. Johnston brings us an interesting talk. Right now he is talking about important rivers. We want to thank him for bringing us these helpful talks.

We are all looking forward to vacation time.

ANNIE LOUISE

Well, the seniors are all gone and we sure do miss them on the campus.

Mr. Isenhour, Nellie Isenhour's Uncle, Mrs. Stone, Nellie's Aunt, Mrs. Taylor, who, as Lucy Bryant, was one of our old girls, brought candy to all the girls.

The following have had visits from their people: Gertrude Bryant, Lorene Hall, Jean Steppe, Sarah Bradshaw and Gwendolyn Landrum.

Barbara Hull and Gertrude Bryant received show tickets for April.

Gertrude Bryant and Betty Joe Smith received the prizes for scholarship and the most improvement during the year of 1940-1941.

We sure want to thank all who had a part in giving hymn books.

Our matron, Mrs. Holton, has gone on a little visit and Miss Burgin is our matron while she is away.

Sadie Cauthern, one of our girls, has gone home to stay. We sure do miss her in our cottage.

A few of our girls have birthdays in May. They are Betty Joe Smith, Melva Powell, Ethel Brotherton, Mary Frances Price, and Barbara Hull.

The girls that received attendance certificates were Margaret Bullard, Clara Mangum, Jeane Steppe, Juanita Young, and Melva Powell.

Two of our girls, Betty Lou Hooten and Lula Belle Hall, were supposed to received reading certificates but the state did not give them this year.

Perfect Attendances

A substantial portion of the entire enrollment in the schools at the Presbyterian Orphans' Home had perfect attendance marks for the entire scholastic session of 1940-1941. The actual number on hand every day without tardiness was 83, and the names of those 83 boys and girls are as folows:

First Grade—Loretta Young.

Second—Clara Mangum and Juanita Young.

Third—Herman Smith, Mary Ruth Gregory, Kathleen Monroe, Melva Powell and Jeane Steppe.

Synod Shows Increase of $72.99 in 1940-1941

Presbytery	April Receipts	Thanks.	Am't Received	Total Per Mem. for
Winston-Salem	57.71	$	1.1c	139.3c
Concord	1,279.07		10 c	138.6c
Kings Mountain	709.72	10.00	11.6c	123.4c
Mecklenburg	1,476.30	10.00	7.9c	114.3c
Orange	408.98		2.9c	93.4c
Albemarle	123.99		2.6c	90.2c
Granville	356.47	26.55	5.7c	75.9c
Fayetteville	1,227.34	28.21	9.2c	68.6c
Wilmington	627.05		7.3c	62.7c
SYNOD	$6,266.63		$74.86	7 c 100.8c

Final receipts from the the Synod for 1940-1941 have been recorded, with the result that 90,905 Presbyterians averaged a fraction over $1.00 per person in the $91,598.36 sent to Barium Springs for the support fund. It was nearer $1.01 per member, but figured down to the fine points it was 100.8 cents per person. Synod showed a gain of $72.99 in its giving over 1939-1940. Because the enrollment of Presbyterians in the Synod showed an increase of 3,976 over the previous year, it meant a decrease in the per capita increase because of the nominal monetary gain. The decrease was 4.5 cents per member.

Of the grand total of $91,598.36 slightly more than half of the income arrived regularly, which is contrary to the usual. In most years the Thanksgiving Offering is slightly greater. Regular receipts were $45,919.62 - gain of $588.39 over the year before. The Thanksgiving Offering aggregated $45,678.74 - a decrease of $512.40. That gives the net gain of $72.99.

In the combined giving for the two years Mecklenburg, Kings Mountain, Orange and Granville Presbyteries showed increases of $1,267.57, $494.89, $260.59 and $66.83, respectively. The other five Presbyteries declined as follows: Albemarle, $771.93; Concord, $499.22; Winston-Salem, $423.37; Wilmington, $243.18, and Fayetteville, $79.19.

On a per capita basis, though, only Mecklenburg and Kings Mountain showed increases - 5.1 cents by the former and 4.3 cents by the latter. Per capita decreases in other Presbyteries were: Albemarle, 22.6c; Winston-Salem, 13.3c; Concord, 9.2c; Orange, 8.8c; Wilmington, 5.7c; Granville, 3c, and Fayetteville, 2.8c.

The per capita lineup of the Presbyteries underwent one major change when Albemarle Presbytery dropped from fourth to sixth place, enabling Mecklenburg and Orange to advance to fourth and fifth places, respectively. Winston-Salem, Concord and Kings Mountain were in the one-two-three order, and Granville, Fayetteville and Wilmington ranked seventh-eighth-ninth.

Final Thanksgiving Offering totals:

Presbytery	1939 Final	1940 Final
Albemarle	$ 2,005.44	$ 1,672.02
Concord	10,947.21	9,720.94
Fayetteville	3,799.74	3,638.49
Granville	2,641.29	2,636.81
Kings Mountain	3,515.88	3,853.54
Mecklenburg	9,838.47	10,623.60
Orange	8,119.92	8,183.84
Wilmington	1,874.78	1,870.79
Winston-Salem	3,448.41	3,478.71
Total	$46,191.14	$45,678.74

An examination of the Thanksgiving figures alone shows increases of $785.13 by Mecklenburg; $337.66 by Kings Mountain; $63.92 by Orange and $30.30 by Winston-Salem. On the down side were Concord with a decrease of $1,226.27; Albemarle, $333.42; Fayetteville, $161.25; Granville, $4.48, and Wilmington, $3.99

Regular Distribution.

Of the $45,919.62 regularly received, the Sunday Schools participated in that total to the extent of $20,383.84; Church budgets were responsible for $16,052.35, and from the Auxilaries came $9,483.42. Broken down into percentages, this figures out to be 44.4% from Sunday Schools; 34.9% from Church budgets, and 20.7% from the Auxiliaries. Below is the detail as to the regular receipts from these three sources in the nine Presbyteries:

Presbytery	Ch.	S.S.	Aux.
Albemarle	$ 509.41	$1,137.58	$1,039.88
Concord	3,071.46	4,055.99	937.11
Fayetteville	1,580.30	3,022.99	1,093.29
Granville	664.49	780.07	1,059.71
Kings Mountain	575.48	2,403.32	854.67
Mecklenburg	4,993.01	4,262.78	1,508.03
Winston-Salem	1,855.46	1,211.27	837.70
Orange	1,271.52	2,209.48	1,493.82
Wilmington	1,531.23	1,300.36	659.21
Total	$16,052.36	$20,383.84	$9,483.42

During 1940-1941, 889 different organizations in the Synod participated in the regular amount received here, with Church budgets out in front with reports from 311 of them. The Auxiliaries had the next largest number of organizations - 292 - and the Sunday Schools trailed with 283 giving regular or special sums, other than those contributed for the clothing fund and at Thanksgiving-time. This was three more organizations than the 1939-1940 total of participants. Below will be found the number in each Presbytery:

Presbytery	Ch.	S.S.	Aux.
Albemarle	15	18	19
Concord	53	43	30
Fayetteville	49	57	67
Granville	20	12	22
Kings Mountain	24	29	25
Mecklenburg	43	44	48

Grammar Grades

On Friday night, April 18th, the people of Barium Springs were entertained by an operetta and a play presented by the grammar grades of the school here. The first, second, third and fourth grades offered "The Magic Beanstalk" as an operetta presentation, and "Uncle Si and the Sunbeam Club" was the name of the play presented by the fifth, sixth and seventh grades.

During the three acts of the operetta there were appropriate and timely choruses sung by different groups attired as villagers, pirates. magic beans, Dutch and Japanese. The principal characters were Herbert Good as Jack; Dwight Reid as Captain Kidd; Ila Lee McBride as Jack's Mother; Herman Smith and Jack Mangum as Juliana, the cow; Bobby Allen as the Announcer; J. D. Everett as Foolemesi, the magician; George Cauthren as Blunderbuss, the giant; and Gwendolyn Landrum as Gipsy Ann.

Those in the play and the parties they represented were Edward Blake as George Burton; Billy Everett as Leslie Wright; Dwight Spencer as Henry Barnes; John Ammons as Arthur Spriggs; Lillian Cranfill as Alice Burton; Patricia Hooten as Lula Dean; Pearl Morgan as Jennie Farley; Dewey Belle Buie as Anna Greene; Raymond Good as Uncle Si Fletcher; Eleanor Pope as Aunt Becky Sharp; Blanche Feimster as Mrs. O'Flaherty; Mattie Pearl Denson as Molly Burke; James Reid as Dick Flynn and Clifton Barefoot as Sam.

18 Graduates at Barium

a means to enable us to make a living without work," he maintained, "but the method by which we may be prepared to do better work in a superior way."

Mr. Hoey said that "by reason of wage and hour laws it is difficult to train or develop apprentices in industry or the trades." In view of that fact, he asserted that "it is now all the more important to train and equip young people in our school so that they may become more intelligently efficient with a shorter period of apprenticeship."

Guests at the final exerises heard a salutatory address given by Emma Eudy, second honor student of the graduates, and the valedictory by Mary Adams, highest ranking of the seniors in scholarship. Henry Pittman was announced winner of the Ace medal for all-round improvement during the his stay at Barium Springs; the Brown Bible medal went to Ruth Cole, and the music improvement medal to Sarah Parcell.

The high school scholarship awards went to Jack McCall, Grover Ingram, Ben Lewis, Mott Price, Wootson Davis and George Norris. Grammar school scholastic prizes were presented to Betty Lou Davis, Esau Davis, Billy Everett, Herbert Good and Betty Jo Smith. The Fred W. Sherrill prizes for scholastic improvement went to Janie Smith and Gertrude Bryant among the girls and to Dick Parrish and Hugh Norman among the boys. In addition to their diplomas each graduate was also presented with a Bible.

The Bacculaureate Service.

Two helpful and beneficial sermons were delivered at Barium Springs on Sunday, April 20th by Rev. S. H. Fulton, pastor of the Laurinburg Presbyterian church, and Rev. Earl Thompson, pastor of the Front Street Presbyterian church in Statesville. The former spoke at the baccalaureate service and the Statesville minister preached to the Young People's Societies in the evening, both services being well-attended.

The text for the baccalaureate sermon was the question of the rich young ruler to Jesus, "Good Master, what good thing shall I do to inherit eternal life?" The speaker said that this rich young ruler had what it seemed would guarantee a successful life. He was rich and young. He had made a success in life but he had failed to make a success of life. Mr. Fulton emphasized that difference and maintained that "success of life is measured only in spiritual terms. Life isn't on the outside, but is inside of us."

"Everyone carries deep within him his own heaven or hell" said the Laurinburg pastor, and likened life unto the glass houses at fairs by saying that "you keep bumping into yourself".

He then launched into a discussion of the things that Christ told the rich young ruler in reply to his query and mentioned first of all the admonition to keep the commandments. "There is a little word you must learn to say and mean it if you will find the rich and abundant life and that is the word 'no'. You hear today a great deal about self-expression" and here he cited the instance of the prodigal son and the results of his seeking self-expression. "Walk in the way of obedience to God's law," he urged.

The second thing Jesus told his inquirer was "sell all that thou hast and give to the poor." It was pointed out that the ruler had been living with self as the center of life, but "forget self if you want life - forget self in the service of others," said Mr. Fulton. He told the seniors that no life was so miserable as that which revolves and centers all in self. "Life glows because of service to others," he went on, "and a life centered in self withers and dies. It must be kept open in its service and sympathy with others There are two attitudes toward life, 'What can I get out of it and what I can give to it?'"

Finally, said the speaker, Christ told the rich young ruler to "come and follow me. It's in Christ that we learn to give in life. In our own strength we would fail; in Christ's strength we can win through to high and glorious living. When Christ is in your heart, life loses its selfishness for His sake and then it gives and serves."

Sermon to Young People.

"God Looks at His World" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Statesville, who used the Book of Esther as one which "reveals great principles of the divine goverment of the world and is a tonic for our times." He pointed out that this was all the more remarkable because God is not mentioned in the Book of Esther but "whatever the reason for its omission the book reveals the power, plan, and providence of God."

The Front Street pastor gave a historical sketch of the Book of Esther as a background for his three-point discussion of God and and his people, the plan of God in history and confidence in the the plan of God. In developing the first point Mr. Thompson said that one of the truths of that Old Testament story was God's relationship to the Jews. He touched upon the efforts of nations and peoples, even in the current era, to plot for the destruction of God's chosen people. History reveals that nations are gone as empires, but the Jew remains. "If history teaches us anything," he said, "it teaches us that the Jew will survive."

In elaborating upon his second point about God's plan in history, Rev. Mr. Thompson said that sometimes God works immediately by first causes and on other occasions He uses casual and trivial events to work out his purposes. Here he brought in his text, "On that night could not the king sleep", stating that this particular night of insomnia changed the King's attitude toward the Jewish people, for he had his secretaries bring in the record and they happened to read from a particular portion that Mordecai had once saved the King from assassination. From that one act and the reading of it to the King, persecution stopped. "Each and every event," he contented, "is a link in the chain of divine Providence."

This led to the third item that "we should have confidence in the plan of God. To the human view everything seems opposite, but all events move forward to beautiful and precise timing. God is always in the field, even when he is most invisible. If to anyone today it should seem that force and injustice is supreme in Europe, or in the Far East, then remember that God stretches out His permitting, His controlling and His overruling hand. Although to us all seems clouds and confusion, through it all God's eternal thought moves on His undisturbed affairs" from which point the speaker said that if God deals with the world, "remember that he deals with you."

CHATTY CHATTER

BILL LINDSEY

There comes most always in everyone's life a departure of old companions and classmates. In the past month, the graduating class of 1941 has passed successfully through the long hall of their stay here and passed out the door of graduation into the world. In the time of their lives here, they have added no misery nor sorrow to us, but have sought, found and passed out goodness through their kindly hearts to everyone, and delightful smiles have erased the sad mystery of our small world here. Their stay here has been a great success and an inspiration to us behind them.

Bill Lindsey

About this time next month, your ole Barium Messenger will be originating from the presses situated in a new building. This modern printing office will be a great deal roomier and much more quicker on The Messenger's "Coming Out."

There's not much news coming in from the "personal" department, but what is here seems to be rather classy. "Blackie" Strickland seems to be on the rampage, she's none other than Dot Gibbs, Dot Johnston's assistant. There seems to be a rush on Betty Whittle since Roland Hooten has enlisted. The race is between a certain W. W. and Lacy Beashers. That seems to be all the personal news; must be the cold weather that's keeping the romance down.

It takes a great poet or writer to tell you about the beauty of Nature and a better one to tell of our life here. Knowing that we have no one who can really tell you what you would see, we only ask you to pay us a visit sometime. The campus is really beautiful, and we know you will enjoy your visit.

And so: Until the heat withers our brow, and our spine tickles with joy in the ole swimming hole, I bid you all pleasant dreams.

mother, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Steele. A friend, who asked that the name be withheld, is giving $200.00 for two bedrooms. This party wanted to furnish a living room, but since all four of these had been taken, the assignment of two bedrooms was satisfactory.

Orders have already been placed for the beds, dressers, shades, chairs and light fixtures in all of the rooms for the new cottages, for these are now expected to be ready for occupancy by July 1st. The furnishings will be delivered by that time. Tables will later be obtained for the rooms.

The four living rooms and the 19 bedrooms that are being furnished by organizations or individuals have all been voluntary contributions, and no solicitation has been made for furnishings for the rooms. It is believed here that the remaining nine available will be taken before occupancy, for some organizations and individuals have intimated that they will either assume this obligation or know someone else who will.

Honor Roll

Since the close of the 1940-1941 scholastic session, those making the honor roll for the entire eight months, as well as in the last quarter, have become available for publication. The 29 children on the honor roll for the year are as follows:

Charlotte. Mr. Daughtry was among the first children accepted in the Home here after its establishment in 1891. After leaving Barium he located in Charlotte, where he has been for the past 41 years. He entered the Home from Hickory.

Hundreds of letters arrive on Mr. Johnston's desk every year from former boys and girls at Barium Springs, and in most every one is an expression of appreciation. Just recently he heard from one of the graduates of Barium and the first paragraph follows:

"I received your letter and was so glad to hear from you. I do enjoy getting news from Barium so much. Although I don't get back so often I love it and will always consider it my real home. I hope I can come up this summer and if Home-Coming is sometime during the summer I am going to make an extra special effort to do so. Carrying two babies somewhere though isn't so easy. I do want you to meet my babies because I think they are mighty fine although Billy is very spoiled and is into something all the time. I am sending you a picture of him but I don't have one of Annette yet. Will take hers and send it as soon as I can."

Reading Certificates

Certain work is required in the fifth, sixth and seventh grades for reading certificates. The 20 children getting them in 1940-1941 follows:

Fifth Grade—Charles Barrett, George Landrum, Grady Mundy, James Reid, Howard Hull, Sadie Gray Buie, Betty Coffey, Peggy Coffey, Mattie Pearl Denson, Doris Gant, Betty Lou Hooten, Violet Knight, Dorothy Maples, Mildred Monroe, and Lucille Stricklin.

Sixth—Dallas Ammons, Jack Caldwell, Frances Bowles, and Jean McDonald.

Seventh—Lula Belle Hall.
